

Feeding Ring

The feeding ring simply floats on the pond water surface. By dropping the floating pellet food into the ring on a regular basis your fish will become accustomed to where they can find their food easily.

This in turn gives you the opportunity to enjoy observing your fish eat and by how much.

If there is food left inside the ring after 15-minutes it can easily be removed before adding unnecessary waste in the pond.